

NEARLY 300 AT 25TH DEANERY ANNIVERSARY

Nearly 300 were present for the 25th anniversary annual dinner meeting of the Conewago Deanery Council of Catholic Women, held on Thursday evening in Sacred Heart Parish Hall, Conewago. This number included representatives of the 15 parish councils and four affiliated organizations in the deanery, pastors, and guests.

Miss Catherine L. Zealberg, Carlisle, president of the West Shore Deanery and treasurer of the Harrisburg Diocesan Council of Catholic Women, was the guest speaker with "Personal Responsibility" as her theme. Miss Zealberg quoted from a talk by Cardinal Cushing, drawing on the Epistle to the Romans, when Paul recommended to the consideration and for the praise of the Church at Rome a woman named Phoebe, whom he described as "active in good works." He also greeted Priscilla and Aquila, devoted women of his day, whose names are still remembered affectionately in Rome, because Paul mentioned them, calling them "my helpers in Christ Jesus, who for my life have risked their own necks."

Miss Zealberg compared the women of the National Council with the loyal women of St. Paul's day, who are also "helpers in Christ Jesus." She said the church is a part of the household concern, the family business, the domestic life and love and action of those who are co-workers with the apostles and their successors. A Catholic woman's apostolate embraces home, church and community, and by her example, she can instill in her family a sense of responsibility to all these, as well as a part in the World Apostolate.

RECALL 37th SESSION
The remainder of the program followed the opening thought of the Conewago Deanery president and toastmistress, Mrs. Paul E. Altoff, Littlestown. "To gauge the future, we must retrospect the past." The official welcome was extended by Mrs. Henry Moore, who was the first deanery vice president in 1937. She is a past deanery president and currently president of Sacred Heart Parish Council. Mrs. Moore listed the 22 women who attended the organization meeting in the rectory at Conewago, with the then pastor and first dean, the Rev. John F. O'Donnell.

The following who attended the first meeting, were also present on Thursday evening in addition to Mrs. Moore: Mrs. Bernardine Poist, Sterner, first treasurer; Mrs. Mary Ramer Eberhart and Mrs. Simon Redding, Gettysburg; Mrs. Evelyn Altoff, Littlestown; Mrs. Violet Rice, Miss Charlotte Hagerman and Miss Margaret Belz, McSherrystown.

Mrs. Moore also presented the past deanery presidents, who were special guests: Mrs. Marie Carbaugh Klunk, Mrs. George Miller, Mrs. Thomas French, Mrs. Edwin J. Killalea, Mrs. Grace Detrick and Mrs. Thomas Murphy. The latter, who is 83 years old, was also first president of the Hanover Deanery and of the Immaculate Heart of Mary Parish Council, Abbottstown, where she served 12 years.

She advised that cooking instructions for meat be followed most carefully, and that proper utensils be used in the preparation and handling of meat. ## Rebels Install Civilian Regime In Beirut; Declare "Independence Of Cairo"

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP)—Syria's army rebels installed a new civilian government today and declared their independence of Cairo.

"The regime of tyranny has gone forever," declared Damascus radio.

Accusing President Gamal Abdel Nasser of the United Arab Republic of turning Syria into a prison, the broadcast said: "We do not oppose Arab unity. We dispute your claim to Arab leadership." Syrian broadcasts declared 200 Egyptian paratroopers sent to put down the rebellion had been wiped out. Other broadcasts said 120 Egyptian commando invaders had been captured without bloodshed.

The broadcasts did not make clear whether they were giving different versions of the same action, or whether two Egyptian forces were involved.

PERSONALITIES IN CIVIL WAR CITED IN TALK

The incidents of the Battle of Gettysburg can be better understood by studying the character of the men who took part along with the study of the tactics they employed, William G. Shoemaker II told the Gettysburg Civil War Round Table at its meeting in the GAR home, E. Middle St., Thursday evening.

Deploing "the tendency to ignore the human factor" in studies of the battle, he said: "It is much easier to understand why certain things happened when you understand the kind of man you are dealing with and the attitudes and views of the people of the day."

Speaking on "How Jeb Stuart Came to Gettysburg," he noted that Stuart was "one of the most romantic, adventuresome, action-filled characters of the Civil War era who also was a teetotaler, a devout Methodist and had an exceptionally strong will, to the extent of being stubborn. An index to his character was his beard—he grew it because his wife liked it."

NEEDED STUART GENIUS

While the Confederate army moved north, Stuart's cavalry moved around the right flank of the Union army. During most of the time while Stuart's cavalry was moving toward Gettysburg, the entire Union army was between him and Lee's army.

Several times during the battle of Gettysburg Lee expressed the wish for Stuart to arrive. Shoemaker said: "What Lee wanted was not cavalry as such. He had with him mounted men who were riding the flanks and front of the army. But Lee wanted Stuart's genius. Stuart was one of the great modern cavalry commanders."

At one point in the circuitous route that was to end at Gettysburg, Stuart was almost into Washington and was tempted to make an attack against the capital.

Near Washington he captured a Union supply train and the 125 wagons, thus secured the advance of Stuart's cavalrymen. (Continued On Page 3)

S. AMERICA IS MISSION TOPIC FOR TALK HERE

"When Katharine Lee Bates wrote 'America the Beautiful,' she was thinking of South America as well as North America for in the southern continent the mountains have purple rocks to furnish the 'purple mountain majesty,' and there one finds fields of waving grain, and blue skies and blue lakes," Mrs. Charles Hauser, Harrisburg, declared when she addressed the quarterly general meeting of the Women of St. James Lutheran Church Thursday evening.

Mrs. Hauser, who has spoken in Gettysburg on numerous occasions in connection with mission work, conducted a mission study session on South America at the Gettysburg Methodist Church Thursday morning and afternoon. She and Mrs. F. H. McFarland, Shippensburg R. D., recently visited South America on an extensive tour.

The speaker told of the excellent beef produced in that country. "I entertained the Hammers at a steak dinner in a restaurant in Montevideo and don't think I was overly generous in doing so for the bill for five steak dinners was only $11." She explained that coffee used in processing the instant variety is grown in Africa, mostly on the slopes of Ethiopia, and not in South America, where the coffee beans for the regular kind are secured.

GUESTS PRESENTED

Mrs. Hauser showed slides of her trip and exhibited numerous articles brought from South America.

Eisenhowers Join In Paying Tribute To Hammarskjold At Memorial Services Here

Led by General and Mrs. Dwight D. Eisenhower and their son, Lt. Col. John Eisenhower, Gettysburg today paid tribute to Dag Hammarskjold, United Nations secretary-general who died in a plane crash in Africa 11 days ago, at a community memorial service conducted at noon today in the Presbyterian Church by the Gettysburg Ministerium.

Held at approximately the same time as the Hammarskjold funeral in Uppsala, Sweden, the memorial service here was impressively simple.

There were a brief eulogy by the host pastor, the Rev. Robert A. MacAskill; prayers by the Rev. Dr. Paul L. Reaser, president of the Gettysburg Ministerium and pastor of St. James Lutheran Church, and scripture reading by the Rev. Lena M. Parr, Ministerium secretary and pastor of the AME Zion Church.

Two hymns were sung by the congregation, "A Mighty Fortress Is Our God" and the United Nations hymn.

The Senior Choir of the Presbyterian Church under the direction of Paul W. Grove sang the anthem, "One World," Brattin-O'Hara-Wilson.

"SOLDIER OF PEACE"

Saluting Mr. Hammarskjold as "a valiant soldier of peace," the Rev. Mr. MacAskill expressed the thought that Hammarskjold "would prefer not retaliation in dealing with men and measures but assurance that his martyrdom to the cause of world peace should serve all men in his death as he sought to serve them in life."

The half-hour service followed a specially prepared order of worship printed in an appropriate cover bearing the flags of the United Nations grouped about an open Bible. There was an organ prelude by Mrs. M. Scott Moore, church organist; the opening hymn, a call to worship and the invocation. Mrs. Parr read from the 1st and 46th Psalms. The United Nations hymn preceded the benediction.

Miniature flags of the United Nations members were massed

Sailors Seal Themselves In Flooded Compartment To Save Sub From Sinking

King, Queen At Last Rites For Secretary Of UN Today

By EDDY GILMORE

UPPSALA, Sweden (AP)—The world community said farewell to Dag Hammarskjold at his funeral today.

In the gothic austerity of Uppsala's 700-year-old Lutheran Cathedral, Sweden's archbishop-elect, the Most Rev. Erling Eidem, paid eloquent tribute to his countryman, saying: "We are gathered here in the house of God, around the bier where rest the remains of a faithful son of his fatherland—a devoted servant of all mankind."

"No less eloquent was an American, Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson, representing President Kennedy, who said upon arriving in Sweden a few hours before the funeral:

"DEATHLESS IDEALS"

"His devotion was to principles that are universal—and to a moral law which is indestructible. "His service to these causes through the United Nations is proof that mortal man can owe his ultimate loyalty to deathless ideals."

Pausing dramatically, the vice president added: "The name of Dag Hammarskjold has entered history—and history confers its highest honors for heroes of peace."

Hammarskjold, for eight years secretary-general of the United Nations, perished Sept. 18 in a plane crash in Rhodesia while flying on a Congo peace mission. Fifteen other persons died with him.

"LOST ITS CAPTAIN"

Choking back his grief, American's Ralph Bunche expressed the thoughts of many who are perplexed about the future fate of the U.N.:

"We are like a crew that has lost its captain. In the wan sunshine, thousands assembled in this old university cathedral city, Dag Hammarskjold's home town, only 2,000 of them—all invited guests—could be admitted to the cathedral. Leading the mourners was King Gustaf VI Adolf and Queen Louise.

Marked by six tall candles, the bier lay before the altar surrounded by wreaths—enough to fill a country graveyard.

Mrs. Richard Bloom, Blue Ridge Summit; Mrs. Bernard Walter, Bonneauville; Miss Catherine Miller, Buchanan Valley; Mrs. Richard Glass, Chambersburg; Mrs. Henry Moore, Conewago; Mrs. Mary Reindollar, Fairfield; Mrs. Joseph Heiney, Gettysburg; Mrs. Bernard Lawrence, St. Vincent de Paul, Hanover; Mrs. Helen Null, St. Joseph's, Hanover; Mrs. Z. W. Sanders, Littlestown; Mrs. Richard Cashen, McSherrystown; Mrs. Donald Groft, New Oxford; Mrs. Evelyn Cruise, Shippensburg; Mrs. Maurice Caron, Waynesboro; Mrs. Frances Hossler, D. of L., Hanover; Mrs. David Klunk, D. of L., McSherrystown; Mrs. Robert Breighner, L.C.B.A., Hanover, and Mrs. John Raffensperger, P.C.B.L., Gettysburg.

Miss Eleanor Miller, New Oxford, the new secretary, reported as did Mrs. Francis Renault, treasurer. The first message sent by the first deanery president, Mary Eberhart, now Sister Marie Therese, to parish councils, was read by a brief resume of activities through the years, noting that the deanery has been host for diocesan conventions in McSherrystown and Gettysburg; that more than $10,000 has been given in the last 10 years to the Special Diocesan Activities Fund; that in one year 54,730 pieces of used clothing, 354 infants garments were collected and 24 Communion dresses made; and last year between 9,000 and 10,000 hours of volunteer work in the social action field were given by members of the deanery.

INTRODUCE PASTORS

Pastors and chairmen and vice-chairmen of deanery standing committees were presented. The president announced that all parish presidents should have their next report in her hands by Nov. 5 and all parish chairmen should report to their deanery chairman by the same date. Deanery reports should go to diocesan chairmen by Nov. 12. Tentative plans include a pilgrimage to the Tomb of Mother Seton in April. An excerpt from the May 22, 1939, deanery meeting in Buchanan Valley, was read, when the deanery adopted the project of promoting the cause of Mother Seton. Attention was called to scrapbooks on display, with material gathered through the last 25 years, and to the shrine on stage in honor of the Blessed Mother. Councils of Fairfield and Blue Ridge Summit were the hostess groups and the Sacred Heart Parish Council helped with necessary arrangements. Tentative dates for the next board meeting and next open meeting are Dec. 4 and Jan. 21 respectively.

Before introducing the guest musicians, an excerpt was read from the news clipping of the first deanery open meeting in Bonneauville, when Miss A. Marie Budde was guest soloist and Miss Anna G. Weaver, both of Littlestown, was her accompanist. Miss Budde sang the same number, Schubert's "Ave Marie," on Thursday, and responded with encores "Christopher Robin" and "The Star." A "Sing Along with Marie" was enjoyed by the assembly.

Messages from the first parish president of St. Andrew's parish Council, Waynesboro, who now resides in Connecticut; the first dean, the Rev. John F. O'Donnell, now in Philadelphia; the first president, Sister Marie Therese, registrar at St. Joseph College, Emmitsburg, and from the Most Rev. George L. Leech, bishop of Harrisburg, were read. The diocesan president, Miss Anna Rehm, Lancaster, extended anniversary congratulations to deanery members. Miss Gertrude Wright, past diocesan president, was also a guest.

The door prize, contributed by the hostess councils, was received by Mrs. Richard Gingrow, Hanover. A gift, in appreciation, was presented to the deanery's immediate past president, Mrs. Edwin J. Killalea, Gettysburg. Those participating on the program were also presented with gifts. The Rev. John McAnulty, pastor of the hostess parish councils, led the opening prayer to Our Lady of Good Counsel, the pledge of allegiance and grace before meals. The Rt. Rev. Msgr. Patrick F. McGee, dean of the deanery, led the closing prayers for vocations. The program concluded with "God Bless America."

PERSONALITIES

He stopped at Rockville June 28 to release 500 prisoners his unit had taken and "the delay slowed him enough that he met Union cavalry at Hanover."

FURNEY RESIDES

Had Stuart arrived at Hanover earlier, he would have passed through without difficulty and met Confederate forces returning from York which would have brought him to Gettysburg at the beginning of the battle.

After running into Union cavalry at Hanover, Stuart turned east toward York, then moved to Carlisle, where he understood Ewell's forces to be. Arriving at Carlisle he found Union forces there and was about to launch a battle against the defenders of Carlisle when he received the information which brought him to Gettysburg for the battle here.

President Harmon Furney presided at the meeting and reported representing the round table at the dedication of the Georgia monument. He expressed his appreciation to the group for a book and get well cards sent during his hospitalization.

Eisenhowers

has been said: "After years of worldwide incantations about support for the U.N. and worldwide disillusionment with its performance, Dag Hammarskjold did one thing—he reduced the great but impossible hope of U.N. as the molder of world peace to the small but possible hope of U.N. as an arbiter, and even a policeman, in relatively minor trouble areas where the interests of the great nations were not directly involved." A favorite motto of his was a quotation from Shelley's "Prometheus Unbound": "one should," he said, "hope till Hope creates from its own wreck the thing it contemplates."

"It was because of Mr. Hammarskjold's deep faith in God, in men, and in the potential for peace, that he was dedicated. With this type of conviction he was not easily swayed or intimidated by the fulminations and harassments of others who would seek to thwart order and unity. Once when strongly challenged by one who desired his removal from office he said: 'This may seem to provide a strong reason why I should resign . . . but by resigning I would at the present difficult and dangerous juncture throw the organization to the winds.'"

"It is said that Mr. Hammarskjold would often be found in the meditation room of the United Nations building and there through quiet reflection and prayer commune with his God and seek divine wisdom and strength to carry the responsibilities incumbent upon his office. He was truly a citizen of the world. His facility to use fluently four or five languages gave him an identification and understanding of cultures and people. He was a man of deep spiritual qualities—reconciliation instead of retaliation, mediation instead of force, order instead of chaos, understanding instead of distrust, courage instead of weakness, faith instead of fear, and

"It was because of Mr. Hammarskjold's deep faith in God, in men, and in the potential for peace, that he was dedicated. With this type of conviction he was not easily swayed or intimidated by the fulminations and harassments of others who would seek to thwart order and unity. Once when strongly challenged by one who desired his removal from office he said: 'This may seem to provide a strong reason why I should resign . . . but by resigning I would at the present difficult and dangerous juncture throw the organization to the winds.'" hope instead of despair. "Because these qualities" were so strongly a part of Mr. Hammarskjold's character and life, he was able to give to the United Nations leadership, direction, and purpose. By being true to his God he was true to his fellowmen as he allowed himself to be an ambassador of peace and good will through personal diplomacy.

"At such a time, we recall the national leadership of Lincoln who gave to our nation what Mr. Hammarskjold was wanting for the world: 'that this world, under God, shall have a new birth of freedom and that government of the people, by the people, and for the people, shall not perish from the earth.'"

"It is only fitting that we come together on this day of his funeral to express our sorrow at his passing and unite with his fellow countrymen to honor his memory and service. But we also express thanksgiving unto God for his life and sense anew what force and power there is in those who live for righteousness and truth. Mr. Hammarskjold would prefer not retaliation in dealing with men and measures but assurance that his martyrdom to the cause of world peace should serve all men in his death as he sought to serve them in his life. For such men world peace is the only adequate memorial. May we here resolve to receive this legacy and make every effort and sacrifice to assure its reality among all men, through a deepening concern that the United Nations fulfill its purpose as an instrument for peace."

Survivors include his widow; two sons, Henry S. Vista, Calif., and Edward M., Nashville, Tenn.; two daughters, Mrs. Robert M. Prather, Springfield, N. J., and Mrs. J. Norris Earnshaw Pimock, Pa., and seven grandchildren.

Funeral services were held today at 2:30 p.m. at the First Lutheran Church, Chambersburg.

Today's Talk
LOOKS
What slaves we are to looks! Unless we have a new fall or spring hat or are dressed in the latest fashion we fear to face many of our fellows. Why is it? And why is it that everyone has to dress like everyone else. Why aren't there more people who will just look themselves over and then decide to dress themselves as they think they will look best?
I can hardly hope to answer those questions for I find myself following the crowd!
But think how wonderful it would be if everyone looked the part of himself or herself—from hat to shoes.
The fact is that personalities far outshine shoes and cuts of trousers, slacks, shorts, vests and frock. But why is it that personalities sidestep dressing these personalities.
In a few rare cases a man grows brave and does try to dress according to his own ideas. Then you have the "odd" chap, the "freak." What a commentary upon originality and independent action!
The most original man or woman in this world is he or she who is himself or herself.
For you see nearly everyone is forever trying to be someone else. And no one ever succeeds in this.
Looks count for much, but expression counts for vastly more.
Our looks are only a blind, a mask. It is what we are behind our looks and our attire that inspires feeling, that makes our measure before our friends and foes.

ETHEL WATERS
ONCE TOP STAR
IS NOW BROKE
PASADENA, Calif. (AP) — Ethel Waters, who says she is sick, broke and jobless, has this message for friends who worry about her:
"I have never been so happy in all my life. The Lord has His arms wrapped around this big, fat sparrow. I'm sitting on the edge of Heaven."
Except for an occasional television appearance, the 61-year-old, 250-pound singer and actress has been out of work for five years. "If I tried real hard I might be able to rustle up $5," she told an interviewer.
MANY PICTURES
Miss Waters made such pictures as "Cabin in the Sky" and "Member of the Wedding," for which she received an Academy Award nomination. Songs she helped make famous included "Am I Blue?" and "Stormy Weather."
Her autobiography, "His Eye Is on the Sparrow," was a best seller ten years ago.
Now white-haired, Miss Waters has a room in the house of a Pasadena family. She says she suffers from high blood pressure, diabetes and heart trouble. In May, 1960, she suffered a heart attack which hospitalized her for months, and has limited her activities ever since.
NO FEAR OF DEATH
"When I go to bed at night I never know if I'm going to hear the birds singing in the morning again," she said. "But I'm not afraid to die. In fact, I'm kinda looking forward to it. I know that the Lord has His arms wrapped around me."
Miss Waters says her religious beliefs forced her out of show business.
"I got good offers from famous men," she said. "They wanted to give me thousands of dollars to be in their plays—but the plays were dirty, and blasphemous, and old Ethel told them that they weren't fit to be seen by decent people."
STOPPED SCRIPTS
"Sweet child, they were mad. They don't like it when you tell the truth about them, so they stopped sending scripts to me and then the agents stopped trying to get work for me. They'll tell you that I 'retired,' but any retiring that was done wasn't voluntary."
Miss Waters says she made several fortunes during her many years on the stage and screen.
"Darlin', I lived good for a long time," she said. "I had a nice home, and big cars, and everything that money could buy. But, Lord, was I lonely. I used that money wrong. I tried to buy friends."
TAX TROUBLE
Miss Waters also had troubles with the Internal Revenue Service, and the memory of them brings on gales of laughter.
"I sold everything I owned to pay off that bill," she said. "I sold my house, my car, and

TASK FORCES
ESTABLISHED
FOR STUDIES
HARRISBURG (AP)—The Executive Committee of the Joint has set up 18 task forces to make a sweeping study of 36 issues selected for presentation to the 1963 legislature.
The issues were approved Thursday and immediately assigned to the task forces to be made up of senators and representatives who will be named in the next few weeks.
"Our tentative program is to have these task forces go into the maze of details and be in a position by the middle of next year to recommend actual legislation," stated Rep. Harris G. Breth, D-Clearfield, chairman of the 14-member JSGC Executive Committee.
"HASH BILLS AROUND"
He added:
"The House speaker (H.G. Andrews envisions bringing back the standing committee before the 1963 session to consider drafts of bills resulting from these studies. The standing committees could hash the bills around, whip them into final form and have them ready when the 1963 session gets under way."
The issues to be studied were everything else. But I paid 'em. I don't owe a cent to anyone." And she broke into another booming laugh, when she said: "Oh, precious, if half of the people that owed me money would pay it back, I'd be a rich woman again."

selected from 4 passed over by the 1961 General Assembly which adjourned at the beginning of this month. Next year's legislative session is limited by law to budget matters.
Breth said plans call for enlisting the aid of the executive branch of the government to get administration bills dealing with the subjects to be studied introduced as early as possible.
INCLUDE TASK FORCE
This speed-up, he added, will include a task force composed of the JSGC Executive Committee to study the legislative procedures of Pennsylvania compared with other states.
Other issues include: public schools, state milk control laws, operation of the drivers licenses suspension and revocation system, the Susquehanna watershed development program, possible reclassification problems connected with pollution of Spring Creek near State College and the threatened abandonment of Fishermen's Paradise on that stream, the natural resource policies of the Commonwealth and health and welfare.

The Executive Committee also agreed—on its own initiative—to look into practices of the Sanitary Water Board in issuing stream discharge permits and the Civil Defense program.
PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Net earnings of $3,050,700 have been reported by the Pennsylvania Railroad for the month of August.
At the same time Wednesday, the railroad reported a deficit of $3,911,100 for the first eight months of this year.
In August of last year the PRR reported a deficit of $3,089,500. The deficit for the first eight months of 1960 was $4,904,200.

Must Commute 2 Life Terms
To Carry Out Death Decree
By JERRY BUCK
SPOTSVYLVANIA, Va. (AP)—A prior murder conviction may determine whether Melvin Davis Rees Jr. will escape execution in the 1959 kidnapping-slaying of a Virginia family of four.
Death in the electric chair was decreed for Rees, 32, a dance band musician Thursday by a Spotsylvania Circuit Court jury that found him guilty of first-degree murder in the killing of the head of the family, Carroll V. Jackson Jr., 29, 2½ years ago.
But Virginia's ability to carry out the judgment depends on the willingness of the federal government to commute two life sentences already imposed on Rees in the same case.
The life terms were meted out earlier this year in U.S. District Court in Baltimore, where Rees was convicted of kidnapping and slaying Jackson's wife, Mildred, 27, and one of their two daughters, Susan, 5.
A second Jackson daughter, Janet, 18 months, also was slain after the Apple Grove, Va., family was abducted from its car Jan. 11, 1959, in what the prosecution here called "the worst crime in Virginia history." Rees, though accused by police, never has been indicted for Janet's death.
The jury of 10 men and two women needed less than 25 minutes to return its verdict.
The Justice Department said in Washington the federal sentences of life imprisonment take precedence over the state's death penalty. A spokesman said the life terms could be commuted to give Virginia custody of Rees, but he said there would be no move in this direction until all possibilities of appeals by the defendant are exhausted.
GIVE GOOD CLUE
Two months after the family disappeared while returning home from visiting relatives, the bodies of Jackson and his youngest daughter were discovered under a pile of brush near Fredericksburg. The bodies of the mother and older daughter were found two weeks later near Gambrills, Md.
Police suspicion was first directed toward Rees by a former acquaintance, Glenn Leroy Moser who terms himself an amateur criminologist. Rees was arrested June 24, 1960, in West Memphis, Ark.
QUEEN SUE FOR DIVORCE
BUTLER, Pa. (AP)—Mary Gertrude Eyth, Mrs. Pennsylvania of 1957, has been sued for divorce.
Frank A. Eyth of Butler charged indignities in filing his suit Thursday in Butler County.
PITTSBURGH, Pa. (AP)—A car Wednesday night killed Thomas Tierney, 58, as he crossed a street near his home in nearby Pittston Township.

THE HELPLESS HUSBAND
I wish I knew where my shirts are hid,
I wish I knew where she keeps my duds,
I've opened up everything with a lid,
And I can't find trace of my evening studs,
And the socks I need—Oh, where are they?
I'm a helpless thing when the wife's away!
It's vain to call, for she isn't here,
I've searched the place for my black bow tie;
It's strange how my things all disappear,
Oh, where is my handkerchief supply?
Some husbands may call this a holiday,
But I'm certainly lost when the wife's away.
Twenty years she has laid them out
Here on the bed when I've come to dress;
And now I go wandering about
Trying their hiding place to guess.
How she would laugh could she hear me say:
"I can't find a thing when my wife's away!"

Friday will mark the second anniversary of the White House conference in 1944 at which the ten points for improvement and development of rural school education were adopted. They were outlined today by Assistant County Superintendent Dr. Robert A. Bream.

Butcher Shops Close; Await Action By OPA: Adams county slaughterers this week were marking time while waiting the outcome of a meeting between OPA Chief Paul Porter and representatives of the meat industry at which, they hope, changes will be made in the OPA regulations.
Ross Bell, York, is scheduled to represent the slaughterers of Adams, Franklin and York counties at the session with OPA Chief Porter.
He was appointed last week at a meeting of slaughterers from the three counties held in York. At that session C. S. Winters, representative of the Southeastern association attacked what he called "irregularities and injustices in ceiling prices for meat producers, slaughterers and butchers."

International Military Tribunal Indicates Conviction Of 22 Germans: The International Military Tribunal declared today that the initiation of war "is the supreme crime," and indicated strongly that 22 Nazi ringleaders it has tried on war crimes charges over the last 10 months would be convicted as charged of conspiring to commit that crime.
Final verdicts and sentences will be delivered tomorrow, when the Tribunal concludes the reading of its 100,000-word judgment on the evidence presented by prosecutors for Britain, France, Russia and the United States since the trial began on November 20, 1945.

Bullets Seek First Win With Revamped Lineup Against Juniata Squad

A revamped Gettysburg College lineup, necessitated by recent injuries, will take the field Saturday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock when the Bullets oppose the Juniata College gridders at Huntingdon.

Harry Richter, veteran end, and Jim Garbutt, sophomore tackle, will definitely miss the game with the Indians. Dave Wehr and Mark Snyder, both sophomores, will share the duties in replacing Richter.

Gary Kerr, senior guard, is a doubtful performer and will be replaced by Dick Foellner, junior tackle, with Bill Richardson, junior, moving into Foellner's spot. Bob Wolfgang, sophomore back, is another question mark and if he is unable to play will be replaced by Barry Gruber, another sophomore.

OFFENSE MISSING

Coach Gene Haas is hopeful his offense will click for the first time. In losing to Buffalo 14-6 and Bucknell 12-6, the Bullets have been able to pick up a total of but 182 yards. They made 104 yards on 41 carries and 78 more through the air. Meanwhile the opponents totaled 662 yards on ground and through the air for 39 first downs as compared to Gettysburg's 10.

Juniata will open its season with the game. The Indians have not had a losing season in 13 years during which they enjoyed five unbeaten campaigns. Coach Ken Bunn, who took over the reins in 1956, has a 32-4-1 record. Last year the Bullets upended Juniata 26-0 and the Indians are bent on avenging that loss. This will mark the 11th game in the series between the schools, Gettysburg holding the lead 7-3.

Gettysburg's starting forward wall will consist of ends Wehr, Tamaqua, and Phil Wargo, Shamokin; tackles Tom Shreiner, Lancaster, and Bill Sarvis, Tappan, N.Y.; guards Bob Coble, Pittsburgh, and Foellner, Mannheim, and center Bob Duncan, Dover, Del.

INDIAN STARTERS

The Indians will start junior Ron Poruban, Portage, at quarterback, with either Jack Beamer and Grey Berrier, both from Harrisburg, starting at fullback. Beamer in the regular fullback, but Coach Bunn feels he can get more mileage out of Berrier at that post. Berrier, 6'1", 205-pounds is a sophomore and is being switched from guard. The halfbacks will be George Patrick, Windber, and Phil Rohm, York.

In the forward wall the Indians will have ends Al Tavalsky, 5'10", 175, Windber, and Ray Erney, 5'11", 175, Harrisburg; tackles, Al Zalansky, 6'4", 220, Tyre, and Jim Tufano, 5'11", 195, Garden City, N.Y.; guards, Dave Oliver, 5'11", 187, McKees Rocks, and Bill Crowell, 5'11", 180, Patton; and center, Gaven Stoker, 6', 190, Lloydell.

M. MANTLE IS IN HOSPITAL WITH BAD HIP

By WHITNEY MARTIN

Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP)—The October jinx has overtaken Mickey Mantle early this year.

With a history of ailments and injuries besetting him at World Series time, the fleet New York Yankee slugger who, with teammate Roger Maris, has given new meaning to the initials M&M, today is in Lenox Hill Hospital, the victim of an abscess in the region above the right hip. He'll play no more during the regular season. He probably will be ready for the World Series.

The star centerfielder had been ailing with a virus for 10 days. With the development of the abscess he was ordered into the hospital Thursday, where Dr. Sydney S. Gaynor, the club physician, excised and packed the infected area.

IN LINE WITH LUCK

Gaynor said Thursday night hospitalization of two or three days might be expected, and there was no chance of Mantle playing out the remainder of the regular season, which ends Sunday.

The current misfortune is strictly in keeping with Mantle's luck. As far back as 1951, his first year in the majors, he suffered a right knee injury when he stepped into a drain connection in right centerfield during the second series games with the Giants. He spent the rest of the series in a hospital, and subsequently underwent an operation to repair the damage.

He missed four games of the 1955 series with the Brooklyn Dodgers because a flareup of chronic osteomyelitis from which he had suffered since incurring a leg injury in high school football in his native Oklahoma. Osteomyelitis is a disease of the bones.

PLAY AT BOSTON

This year Mantle and Maris staged a prolonged, friendly home run rivalry which created an almost feverish interest among the fans as both sluggers appeared to have an excellent chance to equal or better Babe Ruth's record of 60 home runs during a 154-decision season, set in 1927.

The hospitalization means Mantle ends the regular season with 54 home runs.
Maris hit 59 homers in the 154 games and eventually made it 60.
The Yankees—with Maris shooting for No. 61—open their final three-game series with Boston at Yankee Stadium tonight, with afternoon games Saturday and Sunday.

TO PLAY WITH RENS

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Lenny Rosenbluth, former North Carolina basketball player and one-time member of the Philadelphia Warriors of the National Basketball Association, has agreed to play for the Pittsburgh Rens of the new American Basketball League, the Rens announced Thursday night.

LUCK WITH WINNER

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Luck will determine the winner of the Pittsburgh Steelers-Los Angeles Rams game at Los Angeles Sunday, according to Steelers Coach Buddy Parker.

"You can say the team that comes up with the most luck will take it," he said Thursday.

Maris, New York, 130.

Runs batted in — Maris, New York, 141; Gentile, Baltimore, 140.

Penn State, Southern Cal Play Tonight

By JACK CLARY
Associated Press Sports Writer

Penn State's Nittany Lions battle the Miami Hurricanes in the Orange Bowl tonight in a slambang opener to a full weekend of college football.

In Los Angeles' Memorial Coliseum, Southern California will try and right itself from a 27-7 beating by Georgia Tech last week when it plays Southern Methodist.

These two games, plus Virginia Military's encounter in the Southern Conference against Richmond and Detroit's battle with Xavier (Ohio) are the only games tonight before a big schedule on Saturday, during which the nation's top-ranked team, Iowa, will get its 1961 baptism of fire along with a few other untested powerhouses.

UNDER NEW COACH

When Iowa trots out its team under new Coach Jerry Burns, against California (0-1), it will be much like the one that had a 9-1 record last year and was cohampton of the Big Ten with Minnesota. The Hawkeyes have eight starters back including its first team backfield, led by quarterback Wilburn Hollis.

Ohio State, ranked third in The Associated Press weekly poll, also opens its season, but must face a surprising Texas Christian club that upset Kansas last week.

The Buckeyes once more have their "three yards and a cloud of dust" offense, headed by All-America back Bob Ferguson.

Michigan State (No. 10), another Big Ten power, opens against Wisconsin (1-0), pitting its big line and running attack against the passing of Ron Miller.

OTHER GAMES

All the other top-ranked teams have been in action. Mississippi, ranked second, opens defense of its Southeastern Conference title against Kentucky (0-1) while Alabama, ranked fourth, battles Tulane (0-1).

Syracuse (No. 5) is at home to West Virginia, loser of its last 17 games while UCLA (No. 9) is a three-point choice over a strong Michigan team. Texas, ranked sixth, has a Southwest Conference tilt against Texas Tech (0-1) and Rice (No. 7) moves over to Atlanta to play strong Georgia Tech in the South's big game of the day.

Oklahoma and Notre Dame, both on the comeback trail after poor 1960 seasons, open at South Bend and may be seen on television (ABC-TV 2:30 p.m. Eastern Standard Time). Rutgers is at Princeton to celebrate the 92nd birthday of college football, and last year's 1-2 teams, Minnesota and Missouri, square off in Minneapolis.

Yankees Have Wide Edge Over Reds In Statistics

By BEN OLAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Once past their pitching, where the teams are rated fairly even, the New York Yankees have a wide edge statistically over the Cincinnati Reds for the World Series.

The Yankees will go into their 26th series not only with more victories and more experience than the Reds, but with more runs, more homers, more double plays and fewer errors. The Reds have stolen more bases.

Only in the outfield does Cincinnati present adequate competition but even there the Reds run second best on paper to the Mantle-Maris-Berra trio.

SHORT ON HOMERS

New York has a big margin in infield defense, although Cincinnati's Coleman, and third baseman Gene Freese can hold their own against the Yanks' Bill Skowron and Clete Boyer in hitting power.

The bulk of Cincinnati's power figures to come from Frank Robinson, Vada Pinson, Coleman and Freese, with part-time help from Wally Pate and Jerry Lynch. The six have hit a combined total of 137 home runs. This figure falls far short of the 205 home run hit by Roger Maris (60), Mickey Mantle (54), Skowron (28), Yogi Berra (22), Elston Howard (21) and John Blanchard (20).

As a team, the Yankees have smashed 238 home runs to Cincy's 156 in eight more games. They have scored 821 runs to the Reds' 695.

MORE DP'S

Yankees top the Reds in fielding by only two percentage points but they've completed 180 double plays to 122 by the Reds. The big defensive edge is in the infield where the Yankees have three fielding standouts in second baseman Bobby Richardson, shortstop Tony Kubek and third baseman Boyer.

The best of the Reds' infielders is second baseman Don Blasingame but he fails to measure up to Richardson. Shortstop Eddie Kasko is a steady though not spectacular performer. Freese at third and Coleman at first are just adequate.

See Daytime Grid Tilts In Trend

PITTSBURGH (AP)—An Allegheny County school official says a trend apparently is under way to schedule high school football games for daylight hours rather than at night.

Norman Adams, president of the Superintendents Association of the Allegheny County Independent Districts, reports about a half dozen schools started making schedule changes this season.

"There is considerable feeling that the time has come to give athletics back to the students," Adams remarked.

He said there seems to be less rowdiness during day games.

NITTANY LIONS PICKED TO WIN BY 3 POINTS

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—The University of Miami Hurricanes face perhaps their roughest foe of the season in the Orange Bowl tonight. They entertain Penn State, generally regarded as the No. 1 team of the East, in their first football meeting.

Penn State is a three-point favorite and if the Miami come out on top they'll take a big step toward national recognition, as giving coach Andy Gustafson his 100th victory as a coach.

"This team is going to move the ball on us," Gustafson said. "We'll have to score plenty to win."

BANKING ON MIRA

Miami will bank on George Mira, star sophomore quarterback to do the passing and run the option plays.

Mira picked up 191 yards running and passing in the opening 10-7 loss to Pittsburgh and accounted for 111 yards against Kentucky last week despite missing almost half the game because of bruised ribs.

He may not be up to par physically yet but Gustafson plans on using the 175-pounder as long as he can go. Relieving him will be Bobby Weaver, 170-pound senior, and Racey Timmons, who tips the beam at 185. Both performed well in the 14-7 victory over Kentucky.

TO DRAW 45,000

Penn State rolled up 328 yards in a come-from-behind 20-10 triumph over Navy last week to open the season. Coach Rip Engle is expected to employ the same battering tactics against Miami.

A crowd of some 45,000 is expected for the 8:15 p.m. (EST) kickoff.

three games. Pittsburgh will be at Springfield, Rochester at Buffalo and Cleveland at Providence.

Hershey makes its first appearance Oct. 14, facing Rochester at home. Quebec city, the lone Canadian entry, plays its first game Sun., Oct. 15 against Cleveland.

STATISTICS

Faust 0 0 0 7 21-28
TD's: Cooper 3, Zeger, PAT: Horn, Zeger, Letany 2, all rushing.

GHS Invades Chambersburg For SP Game

A large delegation of local fans is expected to follow the Gettysburg High School football team to Chambersburg tonight for its South Penn Conference clash with the Trojans. The kickoff will be at 8 o'clock.

The Warriors (1-2) will be decided underdogs against the unbeaten Trojans (3-0) but are confident of giving a good account of themselves.

Three other county games are scheduled tonight at 8.

Hanover High (1-2) plays at Biglerville (2-1); West York (1-2) travels to Littlestown (1-2) for a Laurel Conference game, and Lancaster Catholic (1-2) invades McSherrystown to meet Delone (0-3) in a Central Penn Catholic League contest.

SONNY LISTON IS ACQUITTED; LICENSE MAY BE RESTORED

By GEORGE ESPER

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A source close to the Pennsylvania Athletic Commission today quoted one of the members as saying that leading heavyweight contender Sonny Liston's chances for reinstatement are "much better than they were a week ago" following his acquittal by a judge on a police charge.

Judge Joseph E. Gold Thursday acquitted Liston in a nonjury trial of a charge that he turned off his auto lights to avoid identification by police after an incident in Fairmount Park last June 12 during which he and a companion were accused of stopping a woman motorist.

The source, who did not want to be identified by name, also gave other indications that the Pennsylvania commission, which lifted Liston's license indefinitely after the run-in with the law last summer, might act favorably in restoring it. This would open the way for a title bout with heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson next year.

The source said that the Rev. Edward P. Murphy, a Denver, Colo., Catholic priest, under whose care Liston placed himself when he was to be rehabilitated himself, had written "encouraging reports" to the commission.

Father Murphy testified as a character witness at Liston's one-day trial.

Action on reinstatement possibly may come Monday. The commission has a meeting scheduled then, but only routine business is listed on the agenda.

But a commission member said that, should Liston apply for reinstatement today, it is possible that he would be called before the commission Monday to offer proof he had rehabilitated himself.

When informed of what the commission member had said, George Katz, Liston's manager, replied: "I'll report this to Atty. Morton E. Witkin and I'm sure he'll take immediate steps."

At the same time, Katz ruled out, at least temporarily, a proposed bout matching Liston and Sweden's Ingemar Johansson "because of Johansson's uncertain status (in his income tax case with the government)."

Liston testified that he understood the policeman to tell him to beat it. As he released the hand brake, he said, his hand apparently hit the light switch, throwing off the head lights.

In acquitting Liston, who had been re-arrested on the charge after having been freed by a magistrate, Judge Gold said there was a "reasonable doubt arising from the inconsistencies of the evidence" and that the defendant had offered "proof of character and reputation."

After battling their opponents to a scoreless first half when play was confined mostly to midfield, the Gettysburg Junior High football squad succumbed to three long touchdown runs by Harry Cooper in the last half and dropped their opening game to Faust at Chambersburg Thursday evening 28-0 in a South Penn Junior High League contest.

Cooper took the opening kickoff in the third period and raced 85 yards for a touchdown. He ran 55 yards for another score with 6:14 left in the fourth quarter and finished with a 34-yard jaunt with 1:45 remaining.

In between Eldon Zeger sprinted 53 yards for Faust's third tally in the last frame.

The third and fourth Faust touchdowns came within 10 seconds of each other. After Zeger had turned in his 53-yard dash the Warriors received but fumbled on the kickoff and Faust recovered. Cooper sped 34 yards on the following play.

All extra points came via rushing.

Coaches of both squads employed their entire reserve units in the late minutes of the game.

The Braves will meet Waynesboro here in another league tussle next Thursday afternoon at 3:45.

SONNY LISTON IS ACQUITTED; LICENSE MAY BE RESTORED

By GEORGE ESPER
PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A source close to the Pennsylvania Athletic Commission today quoted one of the members as saying that leading heavyweight contender Sonny Liston's chances for reinstatement are "much better than they were a week ago" following his acquittal by a judge on a police charge.

Judge Joseph E. Gold Thursday acquitted Liston in a nonjury trial of a charge that he turned off his auto lights to avoid identification by police after an incident in Fairmount Park last June 12 during which he and a companion were accused of stopping a woman motorist.

The source, who did not want to be identified by name, also gave other indications

Life Of Spirit Is Dependent On Man's Role As God's Child

REV. DR. PAUL L. REASER

Pastor, St. James Lutheran Church

THE LIFE OF THE SPIRIT

This is a day with great promise for the life of the Spirit. When men are prosperous and life generally runs smooth, the deeper things of life are easily forgotten. But when there is uncertainty and unrest, when men's souls become faint with fear, then they are compelled to search their souls and probe more deeply the fundamental issues of life.

Paul's letter to the Galatians probes the depths of the human soul. For this reason it is sometimes called his declaration of independence — independence from men and dependence on God, repudiating all authorities, institutions, customs and laws that would interfere with direct access of the individual to his God. In Galatians 5 he writes, "Stand fast therefore in the liberty where with Christ hath set us free."

But one of the first experiences that may come to a man who gives up the binding power of rules and traditions is for his physical impulses to run riot. The apostle has the answer for this, "Walk by the spirit and you will not fulfill the lust of the flesh."

BAFFLING QUESTION

The question that baffles many of us is this: What is meant by the "life of the Spirit?" Is this life different from any other? If so, in what manner is it different?

In one sense everyone lives a "spiritual" life. You cannot live any other way — unless you are a vegetable, without mind and will and emotion — unless you are just vegetating, not living; merely existing instead of being aware of what is going on around you.

But what is the nature of your spirit, the spirit that dominates you? Is it a selfish spirit? or a spirit of resentment? or a defensive spirit? or do you dwell in a spirit of self-pity? Here is a man who constantly thinks the world is against him. He lives in the spirit of fear. An 11-year-old lad attended a church camp this summer who could not cooperate with any group. He knew an "unwanted" child, and he knew it, and lived constantly in a spirit of resentment toward people. The life of King Saul of Israel increasingly dwelt in jealousy and hatred until it brought him to an ignoble end.

PROPER DIRECTION

The life of the Spirit is not mere mind, the intellectual capacity of man. The Creator gave man the power of thought and reason, to use, to think rationally and clearly. "Come, let us reason together," saith the Lord . . . (Isaiah 1:18). The mind of man has produced great things, but the mind without proper direction is like a ship without a rudder, moving crazily over the seas of life. Kenneth Scott Latourette, in his book on the first five centuries of Christian history, says, "Many had ceased to have confidence in the capacity of the human mind, unaided, to arrive at reliable answers to the questions that perplexed them."

Nor is the life of the Spirit mere emotion. Emotion brings zest and enthusiasm to human existence, but it is no safe guide in the choice of life's goals. "Emotion," it has been said, "has no value in the Christian system save as it is connected with right conduct." Some people carry their hearts in their heads; very many carry their heads in their hearts. The difficulty is to keep them apart, and yet both actively working together.

Certainly the life of the Spirit, as we are thinking of it, is not physical desire, which so quickly can deteriorate into gluttony or lust. There are two great compelling human hungers, for food and sex. Each has its place in the Creator's plan for the preservation of individual life and the propagation of the race. But given the steering wheel, put in the pilot's seat, physical desire would quickly land us in a ditch or send us into a tailspin of destruction.

Neither is it the human will, important as it is. "Great souls have wills; feeble ones have only wishes," goes a Chinese proverb. But the will of man, left to have its own way, is perverse and self-seeking. Charlotte Elliott reflects the New Testament message in these words of a hymn, "Renew my will from day to day, Blend it with Thine, and take away."

All that now makes it hard to say, "Thy will be done."

What is the life of the Spirit? In simple terms it is this: it is the life in Jesus Christ. The mind and emotion and will and physical desire are to be brought under the dominion and rule of Jesus Christ. "Have this mind in you which was also in Christ." "Love God with all your heart." "Not my will, but Thine be done."

This means that my thought life, my feelings, my decisions which concern my personal life or which may influence the social structure of which I am a part, will be gladly submitted to Jesus Christ for His correction and approval. This can be accomplished only through a constant exposure of oneself — body, mind and soul — to Jesus Christ, through deliberate and frequent communication with Him. Prayer, the Holy Scriptures, worship, the Sacrament — these are the means by which this communication is made real and actual.

When the apostle sought to describe the difference this new life makes he wrote, "If any man be in Christ, he is a new creature; old things are passed away, behold, all things are become new."

One of the choice books of devotion is a collection of letters written by a spiritual stalwart of the 16th century, known as Brother Lawrence. His writings are called, "Practicing the Presence of God." But someone has defined the secularism of this day as "the practice of the absence of God." That would be clever humor if it were not so sharply and sadly true.

The role, the privilege and the calling of the children of God is to live as in His Presence, to live "in Christ," letting His Spirit be dominate in all things.

BELLS AROUND THE WORLD

The Indians could send a rallying call many, many miles by drums. Each drummer, stationed on a lonely ridge, would listen for the sound of distant drums, and relay the message to others waiting across the valley. Overnight a dozen tribes could be rallied to a common cause.

We don't need such crude methods of communication today. Men with a common purpose can join forces around the world at a pre-arranged time.

World Wide Communion Sunday is such an expression of unity. In every Christian land the church bells will summon men and women to the Lord's Supper on this Sunday.

And the universality of this great religious event will not depend on bells relaying the message from town to town. It will depend on folks like yourself coming to their Church to receive this Holy Sacrament.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

MRS. TUNISON SPEAKER FOR WOMAN'S CLUB

Mrs. Helen Tunison, Adams County's home economist, was guest speaker at the first fall meeting of the Woman's Community Club of Littlestown and vicinity, held Wednesday evening in the social room of the Eagles' home on W. King St. with more than 50 members and guests in attendance.

Mrs. Tunison spoke about "Woman's Place in Today's Society," noting that women comprise 37 per cent of the labor force; that in 1890, almost 85 per cent of all women employed were in domestic or personal service or manufacturing, whereas in 1950, only 44 per cent were in these fields.

In explaining the significant stages and ages in the lives of women, she said: "In 1900, girls left school at age 13, married by age 23, had their last child by age 35 with the last child leaving for school by age 42; the last child in the family was married when the mother was between 35 and 60 and women could expect to be a widow for 15 years until her own death at age 65."

TIMES HAVE CHANGED

In 1950, girls left school at age 18, married under 20, had their last child at age 26, the last child left for school at age 30, the last child married when mother was 30, she could expect to be a widow for 10 years or more, depending on her own life span, over 70 years of age. It was also noted that women control 75 per cent of the nation's assets.

At the conclusion of her talk, there was a tape recorded message from Dr. Siegel of Pennsylvania State University on the same subject and then the women were divided into groups of seven to discuss prepared questions and to give a resume of their own group conclusions to these questions.

The program, in charge of the conservation department, Miss Malva A. Duttera, chairman, also included a reading "Life Is Like a Schoolroom," by Mrs. John W. LeGore, and two vocal solo selections "When Night Is Calling" and "Till There Was You," by Betty Lou Sell, daughter of Mrs. John N. Sell, a member, accompanied by Miss A. Marie Budde, a club member. The Pledge of Allegiance and the club collect opened the meeting.

SYRIA SLOWLY BEING TAKEN OVER BY UAR

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
"Arab Unity" was the theme proclaimed by President Gamal Abdel Nasser when Egypt and Syria were joined under his leadership as the United Arab Republic on Feb. 1, 1958.

To most Syrians, the "unity" has appeared more and more a steady advance of Egyptian control in the past 3½ years.

The key geographical fact about Egypt and Syria is that, despite their political ties, they are separate nations and had been for centuries. Lying between the two states are parts of Israel, Jordan, and Lebanon—a distance of about 100 miles.

Political considerations worked toward a merger in 1958, when Communists were infiltrating the Syrian government. Led by Syrian President Shukri Kuwatly, a delegation of politicians went to Cairo late in 1957 and sought a union between the two states.

SAW OWN AMBITION

They were alarmed by Syria's growing ties with the Soviet Union. Nasser, willing if not enthusiastic, saw the merger as a step toward his ambition for a united Arab World.

Union brought an end to the Syrian Communist party, which was outlawed as it had been in Egypt. But it also brought a decline in the power of Syria's politicians. There now is only one Syrian vice president among the U.A.R.'s seven. Separate executive councils for the two regions were abolished last month, and administration was consolidated in Cairo, the capital of Egypt and the U.A.R.

Economically, Syria and Egypt complement each other. Most of Egypt's more than 25 million people are crowded into the fertile Nile Valley. Syria has about 5 million and land to spare. Most of the people in both areas are farmers.

LARGE LEFT WING

Before World War I Syria was under Turkish domination. But the French, claiming interest in Syria dating back to the Crusades, obtained a League of Nations mandate over the country in 1921.

Syrians struggled for their own independence, and in 1930 France recognized the country as an independent republic but still subject to mandate.

In World War II Syria was occupied by the British and Free French. The latter agreed to terminate the mandate.

Syria emerged in the postwar years as a truly independent republic—but still with plenty of unrest and unsolved political problems. It had the largest left wing in the Arab world.

NAB SUSPECT IN SLAYING OF YOUTH IN 1957

BALTIMORE (AP) — The FBI announced Thursday the arrest in New York city of a 54-year-old man accused of killing a 10-year-old boy from Wilmington, Del., in 1957.

Edward J. Powers, special agent in charge of the Baltimore office of the FBI, identified the arrested man as John W. Browder.

Powers said Browder was arrested Wednesday at his New York residence, under a federal warrant charging unlawful flight to avoid prosecution for murder.

WOUNDED IN BACK

The FBI said Browder faced charges for the slaying of Gregory Malloy, attacked with a sharp object in a marshy wooded area "frequented by tramps and used as a play area by neighborhood children" in Wilmington.

The FBI said the boy suffered stab wounds in the back which severed his spinal column. He also suffered wounds in the chest and left arm and died as result of severe shock and hemorrhage.

The federal warrant against Browder was issued at Wilmington May 6, 1959. The killing took place June 27, 1957.

The FBI said Browder went to New York seeking employment as a construction laborer and had been using the name of James was working as a plasterer's helper.

Browder was scheduled to be taken before a United States commissioner for the southern district of New York later today.

Rebels Launch Attack On Nasser

LONDON (AP) — Army rebels have launched an uprising in the Syrian region of President Nasser's United Arab Republic and claimed to have succeeded in all parts of Syria. Nasser in a Cairo broadcast said his forces in Syria would smash the rebels.

A broadcast over the radio of Damascus, the Syrian capital,

Pvt. Barbara D. O'Conner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James O'Conner Jr., R. 5, completed nine weeks of basic training with the Women Marine Corps at Parris Island, S. C. She is spending a 15-day leave with her parents after which she will report to her new station at the Marine Corps Air Station at Cherry Point, N. C., where she will serve as a supply clerk.

JOHNSTOWN, Pa. (AP)—Robert (Fuzzy) Erie, 17, a southpaw pitcher, has signed a bonus contract with the Baltimore Orioles of the American League and been assigned to Leesburg in the Class D Florida State League.

Erie, son of Robert Erie Sr., business manager of the Johnstown club in the Class A Eastern League, formerly pitched for Allentown's Dieruff High School. His two year record there was 17-7. The amount of the bonus was not disclosed.

said the rebels led by Syrian army officers had closed all ports and air fields and the radio station.

The reported blow at ports and airfields apparently was designed to prevent Nasser from sending in forces from the Egyptian region of the U.A.R.

In a Cairo broadcast monitored in London, Nasser said his U.A.R. forces already in Syria would march on Damascus to put down the uprising.

PROSPECTS OF AGREEMENT ON CONTRACT DIM

By DWIGHT PITKIN

DETROIT (AP) — Prospects of Ford Motor Co. and the United Auto Workers union reaching a complete settlement on a labor contract within the next few days appeared to have diminished Thursday.

Another week may be required. The negotiations are continuing under secrecy wraps.

This was indicated Wednesday when the bargaining teams split up into subcommittees to study contract changes sought by both the company and the union.

Three subcommittees have been assigned to deal with contract language covering pensions, insurance and supplemental unemployment benefits. These are some of the areas in which the union is trying to gain from Ford a better settlement than it made with General Motors.

COMMITTEE SET UP

A fourth subcommittee was set up to work on problems at Ford's steel plant in Dearborn, Mich.

More than two months ago Ford proposed changes in the working agreement affecting steel workers at the company's Rouge Plant. Ford Monday offered the union a three-year contract paralleling the settlement made last week with General Motors. The union said this was not enough.

The GM settlement gives UAW members an increase of more than 12 cents an hour each year in take home pay and provides extra benefits in insurance, pensions and hospital-medical care.

Lawrence, at dedication ceremonies Wednesday, said the institution is the first of its kind in the state.

Man, 49, Guilty In Shotgun Slaying

READING, Pa. (AP)—A jury convicted 49-year-old Edwin Gockley Wednesday of second degree murder in the March, 1960, shotgun slaying of another man.

Defense attorneys said they planned to file a motion for a new trial. Sentencing was deferred.

Authorities charged Gockley with shooting Clement J. Smith, 41, and burying his body on the grounds of a tennis club Gockley owned near Reading. Smith had been reported missing for several months.

When state police dug up Smith's body in November, 1960, they also found the body of Mabel Klein, 64, a Reading divorcee who also had been reported missing for several months.

COMMENTS ON PENALTY FOR HER REPORTER

NEW YORK (AP)—The chief editor of the Overseas Weekly, one of whose reporters was convicted of slandering Maj. Gen. Edwin A. Walker, said that "I regret a reporter can be punished for asking questions of properly authorized officials."

The editor, Mrs. Marion Rospach, had been asked for comment on the case of Siegfried Naujocks, who was convicted in Augsburg, Germany, Wednesday and given the alternative of a $300 fine or 30 days in jail.

TOLD OF TUMOR

Mrs. Rospach said that by "properly authorized officials" she meant the public information section of the 24th Infantry Division, which Walker commanded.

The court ruled that Naujocks, a German citizen, slandered Walker in telling three members of Walker's division last December that the general suffered from a brain tumor and that he had seen a medical report proving it. He never produced such a report

LOST HIS COMMAND

Army doctors who examined Walker at the time testified no brain tumor was found.

Naujocks was one of the authors of a report published last April by the Overseas Weekly in which Walker was accused of distributing material for the John Birch Society in his troop information program.

The report prompted an Army investigation, with the result that the general was relieved of command of his division and admonished by the Army commander in chief in Europe, Gen. Bruce C. Clark.

ELDERLY WIDOW DIES IN BLAZE

FRANKLIN, Pa. (AP) — Fire swept the apartment of two elderly widowed sisters in this Venango County town early Thursday, killing one of them.

Fatally burned was Mrs. Theresa M. Wilson, 85. Her sister, Mrs. Bertha Harrison, 82, was taken to Franklin Hospital with burns of the forehead and body.

Mrs. Harrison told rescuers she awoke and smelled smoke coming from her sister's bedroom. She said she forced open the locked door but smoke kept her from entering.

Firemen restrained Mrs. Harrison several times from re-entering the building.

EXPERIENCES LONELINESS IN BOMB SHELTER

ERIE, Pa. (AP) — Imagine being alone in a dark, underground tunnel for 24 hours. What would it be like? What would be the most part of it?

Reporter Bill Campbell of the Erie Morning News wanted to find out. He spent a full day in a tunnel beneath the city to see what it would be like to live under such conditions in the event of a nuclear attack.

Campbell climbed out of the tunnel Thursday night. He said: "I'm exhausted. But I'm convinced I could have stayed down there longer with no ill effects."

CHATTED ON RADIO

What was the worst part of it? Being alone, Campbell said.

Armed with a .45 caliber automatic, a battery-powered lantern, some sea rations and a mobile radio, Campbell went down into the tunnel at 7:10 p. m. Wednesday.

He said he spent a lot of time just exploring the tunnel. Occasionally, Campbell chatted with members of the Erie Citizens Radio Association on a two-way radio.

He ate three meals in the tunnel, slept about four or five hours and did some reading.

ANT IS VISITOR

But Campbell wasn't completely alone in the tunnel. He explained: "A little ant showed up about 8:30 p. m. and stayed with me until 9 o'clock the next morning."

The tunnel, which carries Mill Creek under the city, is 2½ miles long, 18 feet high and 22 feet wide. It's made of concrete and steel. The ceiling is 10 feet thick and the walls are 9 inches thick. Campbell found a stream of water three feet wide running through the tunnel.

LEMAY ORDERS FITNESS FOR HIS OFFICERS

By FRED S. HOFFMAN

WASHINGTON (AP) — Gen. Curtis E. LeMay has taken steps to require the 91 Air Force generals flying desks at the Pentagon to play squash lift weights or exercise regularly in some other way.

The Air Force chief of staff, a pretty rugged type himself, has expressed "very, very great concern" that generals doing staff work keep in top shape, sources said.

To this end, the Air Force surgeon general, Maj. Gen. Oliver K. Neiss, has drafted a program which is expected to gain final approval by LeMay.

HAVE SOME CHOICE

Each general would be required to undergo a physical examination by an Air Force doctor, who then would recommend whatever meaasures might be needed to keep down waistlines and stay in trim generally.

Under the plan, general officers would have a couple of options. They could leave their offices for at least a half day a week for recreation or exercise "of which physical activity is an essential element." This could include golf.

If they preferred, the generals could take more strenuous exercise for shorter periods of time at an officers' gymnasium in the Pentagon. Available there are handballs, swimming, weightlifting, squash and the like.

Air Force doctors would keep tabs to determine whether the generals attain and maintain the proper physical condition.

URGES YOUTH SUPPORT

NEW YORK (AP) — Former President Herbert Hoover urged more public support Thursday for Boys' Clubs and children's aid centers.

The former president said such character-building organizations are "the sunlight of hope for the future of America."
